Replacement Policy
 If a membership is paid by a company, the company may choose to transfer the membership from one employee to another up to once per year. The fee for replacing a member is $50. The employee who is replaced is considered to be a Prospective member and the new member will take over the membership, including the paid through date.
 Prospective members must renew their membership within 90 days in order to maintain membership without having to reapply. Please allow 5-7 business days for this application to be processed. The new member will receive an email when the membership application is approved.
