Ice Balls Score Big in Houston and in New Orleans

This has been a big week for our newest ice product offering--the Ice Ball (also known as the iBall) as it was introduced simultaneously in Houston and New Orleans and has been already become the talk of these two towns.

More than 650 attendees at the NACE conference in Houston were greeted at the opening reception with an ice ball in their cocktail, and the accolades (and the jokes) did not stop there and have been followed by some very big event orders.

In New Orleans, the Ice Ball is the center of attention at several events at at the "Tales of the Cocktail" Our "iballs" have been featured at the Hotel Monteleone's historic Carousel Bar each evening, and were at the center of the glass at VIP suites.

Absolut Vodka has introduced a special limited release brand with some promotional assistance from Ice Caters. Absolut New Orleans is a delicious blend of mango and black pepper essence in a sure to be collector's edition bottle. Absolut executives from Sweden were on hand as the brand debuted at a bar chefs competition on Friday at the Ritz Carlton New Orleans. Absolut's Sarah Besette is shown here in front of our Custom Logo Display depicting the brand. All of the profits from the sale of this brand will go Gulf Coast charities. Special Thanks to Frank Stansbury of Glazer's Louisiana for the pix and the opportunity for Ice Caters to be involved!
