

Michel Malecot Culinary Excellence Award

This award recognizes outstanding achievement in culinary excellence and community and industry involvement by a chef, chef-owner, or a major principle in a catering organization, including a restaurant, catering school, off-premise, or on-premise catering, with a minimum of 50% of revenue from catering or private events. This award recognizes those individuals with a commitment to leadership in culinary education, sustainability and social responsibility, along with mentorship of chefs new to the catering and events industry. Must be a NACE member to be nominated for this award.

Give a 150-word overview of the award submission to answer the following questions. This overview should set the tone for the rest of the award submission. This overview may be used in promotional materials and NACE reserves the right to modify this description for the award program.

What is the nominee's top contribution to the catering and events industry, considering culinary excellence and community and industry involvement? Why should they receive this award?

Respond to the below bulleted prompts in 350-500 words. Answer all prompts in the order listed, adding space between answers, for maximum point value.

- How does the nominee exhibit thought leadership, through education, publications, or local mentorship programs?
- What impact has the nominee made on NACE and its chapter(s), including speaking, hosting a meeting, volunteering, and leadership roles?
- What creative elements does the nominee include within menu design, including beverage (alcoholic or non-alcoholic) pairings, regional cuisine, innovative culinary trends, and unique marketing approaches?
- What efforts has the nominee participated within their organization that relate to sustainability, social responsibility, carbon footprint reduction (e.g. farm to table and local sourcing), and community service?
