

Emerging Member of the Year

The Emerging Member of the Year award recognizes relatively new members whose membership, local and national association participation, contributions, and involvement have made a significant impact on NACE in the past year. Candidates must be a professional or young professional NACE member in good standing for at least one year, but not more than 5 consecutive years.

Give a 150-word overview of the award submission to answer the following questions. This overview should set the tone for the rest of the award submission. This overview may be used in promotional materials and NACE reserves the right to modify this description for the award program.

What is the nominee's top contribution to the catering and events industry this year? What is the nominee's top contribution to NACE this year? Why should they receive this award?

Respond to the below bulleted prompts in 350-500 words. Answer all prompts in the order listed, adding space between answers, for maximum point value.

- How many years of consecutive membership does the nominee have? (must be between 1 and 5, to be confirmed by NACE staff)
- What is the nominee's full involvement in the catering and events industry and career experience this year?
- How would you describe their participation, contributions, and involvement with NACE this year?
- How has the nominee impacted the NACE chapter this year?

Upload the following to support your written award submission. All upload material must be submitted to receive full credit for this portion of the submission.

- REQUIRED Upload the letter of recommendation from a member of the Chapter's Executive Committee.
- Upload two pieces of information supporting the nominee's actions such as photos, letters of recommendation from NACE members, NACE-related beneficiary, and public press coverage including NACE newsletters.
- Upload a testimonial from the nominee describing how NACE has personally and professionally impacted their life.
